Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

A. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Purpose – Habitat for Humanity of Lake-Sumter, Florida, Inc. (the Organization), a nonprofit organization, was incorporated on October 13,1989. The Organization is an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, Inc. a nondenominational Christian nonprofit organization whose purpose is to create decent, affordable housing for those in need, and to make decent shelter a matter of conscience with people everywhere. Although Habitat International assists with information resources, training, publications and prayer support, the Organization is primarily and directly responsible for its own operations. The Organization is a local organization which is supported by individuals, clubs, businesses, churches, and thrift store sales.

The Organization is a nonprofit organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code under a group exemption letter issued to Habitat International and is exempt from federal and state income taxes.

Basis of Presentation – The Organization has adopted FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958 (formerly Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, "Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organization"). FASB ASC 958 establishes standards for external financial reporting by not-for-profit organizations and requires that resources be classified for accounting and reporting purposes into three net assets categories per externally (donor) imposed restrictions. A description of the three net asset categories is as follows:

Unrestricted net assets have no donor-imposed restrictions. Restricted net assets received and expended in the same year are classified as unrestricted.

Temporarily restricted net assets have donor-imposed restrictions that expire with the passage of time or that can be satisfied by use for the specific purpose.

Permanently restricted net assets are required by donors to be held in perpetuity, including gifts requiring that the principal be invested and the income or specific portions thereof be used for operations.

Expenses are generally reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Expirations of donor-imposed stipulations that simultaneously increase one class of net assets and decrease another are reported as transfers between the applicable classes of net assets. Restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted contributions.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments – The following methods and assumptions were used by the Organization in estimating its fair value disclosures for financial instruments.

Cash and cash equivalents – The carrying amounts reported in the statement of financial position approximate fair value because of the short maturities of those instruments.

Mortgage notes receivable – They carrying amount approximates fair value, which is determined by discounting the future cash flows using rates that approximate the current rates at which similar loans would be made to borrowers with similar credit ratings and for the same remaining maturities.

Interest income (amortization of the discount) is recorded using the effective interest method over the lives of the mortgage notes.

Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions affecting the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – The Organization considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Inventory – The Organization receives donations of building materials that would otherwise have to be purchased to complete house construction. The fair value of these goods is recognized as revenue and inventory when received. They are expensed as construction costs when used.

Investments – Investments consist of stocks donated by individuals. The stocks are marketable securities and are stated at fair value. Contributed investments and land are recorded at their fair value at the date of donations. Sales of investments and associated gains or losses are accounted for using the specific identification method.

Fair Value Measurements – The Organization has adopted FASB ASC 820, which clarifies that fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participant would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, ASC 820 establishes a three-tier value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in the valuation methodologies in measuring fair value:

- Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quotes prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Organization has the ability to access.
- Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in the active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Organization has the ability to access.
- Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

In accordance with FASB ASC 820, the Organization measures cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities at fair value. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on marketable securities are determined by using specific identification.

Fair value for securities that are traded on a national securities exchange is based upon the last reported sales price on the last business day of the year. Fair value for investments traded in the over-the-counter market, and listed securities for which no sale was reported on that date, is based upon average of the last reported bid and ask price.

Promises to Give – Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire in the fiscal year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets.

Land for Future Home Sites – These parcels are held by the Organization to be used for future home building sites. Donated parcels are recorded at appraised valuation. Purchased and foreclosed parcels are recorded at cost. Real estate assets are evaluated for impairment if impairment indicators are present. An impairment write-down to fair value less costs to sell occurs when management believes that events or changes in circumstances indicate that its carrying amount may not be recoverable. No impairment losses were recorded during 2016.

Construction in Process – All direct material and equipment costs and those indirect costs related to home construction are recorded as construction in process on the statement of financial position. When revenue from the sale of a home is recognized, the corresponding costs are then expensed in the statement of activities as program services.

Property and Equipment – It is the Organization's policy to capitalize property and equipment over $500. Lesser amounts are expensed. Property and equipment are recorded at cost if purchased or at their estimated fair value at date of donation. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Building and Improvements 10-40 years

Office Equipment, Furniture & Fixtures 5-7 years

Warranties – The Organization provides a one-year warranty covering general defects in materials and workmanship on each home sold. Warranty costs are expensed when incurred.

Most of the mortgage notes have an original maturity of 20 to 30 years and arose in connection with the Organization's homebuilding initiatives in Lake and Sumter Counties of Florida. As the payments are received, the discount is amortized to recognize the imputed interest portion of each payment. The amortization of the discount is shown as mortgage discount amortization revenue on the statement of activities. Amortization included as revenue for the fiscal year amounted to $209,746.
